DAAWAT ILALLAH - PREACHING

Huzoor(aba) stated that it has been the practice that Jama'ats spend a day or a week as 'Tabligh Day' and distribute pamphlets. This practice is O.K. to a certain extent, but cannot be relied upon to do justice to the task of preaching. Huzoor(aba) stated that unless we establish and maintain contacts with those who were given the pamphlets, this practice is tantamount to waste of money. Those who are interested should be given information on a continuous basis. Also, in order to rectify the negative impression created by the mullahs, it is important to convey the true message of Islam in the Promised Messiah's words. Huzoor(aba) stated that it is important to maintain a continuous flow of information in order to nurture the seeds of truth.

Huzoor(aba) quoted some passages from the writings of the Promised Messiah(as) on the subject of Da'awat I'lallah where he has advised the Jama'at to preach with wisdom, with softness but without compromising the integrity of the message. Also, we should not show any sign of impatience or anger for this can drive others away instead of drawing them close to you.

(Friday sermon by Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (aba) on 8th October 2004)
