POPPY APPEAL

The Poppy Appeal is the Royal British Legion's biggest fundraising campaign, held each November during the Remembrance period. Its celebrations begin in the last decade of October. Majlis Ansarullah UK put their efforts and time in providing support to the Poppy Appeal every year.

The campaign was once again linked to the Majlis Ansarullah UK Charity Walk for Peace, which has raised millions of pounds for UK charities every year. Charity Walk for Peace is a registered UK charity which mobilises thousands of volunteers for the Poppy Appeal campaign and plays an important role in promoting the cause through its network of charities and non-profit organisations.

This year, members of Majlis Ansarullah UK sold poppies door to door and at key locations across the country, including tube stations, bus stations, railway stations, local supermarkets, shops, and stadiums. The members of Majlis Ansarullah UK gave their time and effort to Poppy Appeal stalls across the country. Regions also shared their work and thoughts on social media, which got the attention of thousands of people, giving them an introduction to Islam Ahmadiyyat.

Ansar attended and hosted many ceremonies. Members of Parliaments, Councillors, Army officials, and government and civil society delegates attended these events. In some regions, Ansar helped in collection counting with Poppy Appeal officials. These efforts of Jamaat Ahmadiyya were highly appreciated at all levels.

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, supreme head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, said:

“Muslims are obliged to be loyal to the country in which they live. Honouring those who fought to defend and safeguard one’s country is an important principle of Islam and, in fact, is an important principle of peace.”

A primary objective of a mosque is, of course, the worship of the One God and so mosques are a place where Muslims join together to bow down and prostrate before God Almighty in worship. Such worship is offered five times a day and is known as Salat.

INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

Mosques - Centres of Love & Peace

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, Khalifatul Masih the fifth ^{ra} the Head of the Worldwide Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, said:

- We seek to build ties of friendship with non-Ahmadis and non-Muslims
- We strive for interfaith dialogue
- We value and cherish our neighbours
- We are ever ready to help those who are in need
- We champion the rights of the weak and deprived
- We are there to serve the community and to be loyal and faithful citizens
- This is our faith and this is our teaching
- This is why we build mosques
- We seek to practically manifest and live up to our community's slogan of:

The conflicts that existed on a small scale are now developing into international conflicts. In the past, when I said that the injustice in the world was pushing us towards nuclear war many government officials, analysts and politicians said that this is a far-fetched claim.

Explaining Islam's teachings in relation to mutual respect and interfaith dialogue, His Holiness Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said:

“Islam teaches that disorder should be curbed, rather than encouraged or inflamed.”
