MAJLIS DUDLEY

On 16th October 2022, the majlis Ansarullah Dudley held a Peace Forum in Village Parish Hall Clent Hills. The event was attended by more than 45 members, including villagers, dignitaries and guests from all walks of life.

The following speakers spoke in the forum and shared their thoughts on the topic.

Mansoor Ahmad Minhas sahib from AMEA Dudley introduced the Ahmadiyya Muslim Elders Association and its initiatives towards promoting peace worldwide. For more than one hundred years since it was founded in India in 1889, this movement has enjoyed an unrivalled record for peace and for its efforts to build cohesive societies. He touched upon the holding of such peace forums by AMEA all across the UK throughout the year and its role towards other charitable initiatives that Majlis Ansarullah UK has taken.

Mr Tariq Malik (Regional Coordinator) for Charity Walk for Peace introduced the excellent work done by Jamaat Ahmadiyya for charity. He invited the audience to join forces and help each other towards the same cause of promoting peace. He said that Charity Walk for Peace has raised 7.1 million pounds for UK charities till now and has supported over 600 charities without deducting any administrative costs. He thanked the volunteers as an integral part of the charity, without whom they could not have made this impact.

Revd Kim Topham, Assistant Curate for St Leonards, St Saviours, and St John's addressed the audience by quoting the beautiful teachings of Jesus from the Bible, “Love your neighbour”, and praised AMEA for holding such events. She added that today she has learned the similarities between two beautiful teachings and looks forward towards working together for the betterment of the community.

The keynote speech was delivered by Imam Imran Ahmad Khalid sahib (Missionary In charge at Baitul Ghafoor Mosque Long Lane). He described the importance of establishing peace in society and globally, quoting the verses from the Holy Quran and the teachings of the founder of Islam, Prophet Mohammad(saw). He cited, “And if two parties of believers fight against each other, make peace between them; then if after that one of them transgresses against the other, fight the party that transgresses until it returns to the command of Allah. Then if it returns, make peace between them with equity, and act justly. Verily, Allah loves the just. (Ch. 49: v.10).”

He further said that though this teaching is about Muslims, yet by adhering to this principle, the foundation of peace on a worldwide basis can be laid. At the outset, it was explained that the foremost requirement is justice to maintain peace in society. And, despite abiding by the principle of justice, if efforts to make peace are unsuccessful, then unite and fight collectively against the party that has transgressed and continue until such a time that the transgressing party is ready to make peace. Once the transgressing party is ready to make peace, justice requires not seeking revenge and not imposing restrictions or embargoes. By all means, keep an eye on the transgressor while trying to improve his situation.

The supreme head of the worldwide Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, expressed his concerns earlier this year in March 2022 in the following words:

“Most regrettably, it is this never-ending craving for power and wealth, whether on the part of Russia, the Western world or other major powers, which has led mankind down such a dangerous path that threatens to shatter the peace of the world.”

His Holiness had further said:

“A dark and ominous shadow has been cast upon much of the world, and if, God forbid, the current situation escalates further, the consequences do not bear thinking about.”

Guests were served refreshments and food.

MAJLIS WALSALL

Majlis Ansarullah Walsall held a Peace Forum on 16th October 2022.

Preparing for the Peace Forum started with visiting the Aldrige Methodist Church, confirming the Peace Forum Venue, and inviting Church staff to the upcoming event.

Majlis Walsall distributed 250 leaflets and invitation letters to different houses and held a village Tabligh stall.

The speakers of the Peace Forum expressed their views on the world’s crises and how we can achieve peace. They agreed on joint efforts to establish peace.

Quran Exhibition and a book stall were also a part of this event. Majlis got an opportunity to distribute leaflets and books to the attendees.

MAJLIS WOLVERHAMPTON

Majlis Ansarullah Wolverhampton held a peace forum on 22nd October 2022 at the Lakeside Hall, Perton Civic Centre. The event was attended by 3 external guests and 26 Jamaat members. The guests include two Reverend couples and the hall caretaker. Though the low turnout of guests was a concern, the presence of Reverend Julie Cody of The Church of Perton and her husband, Reverend Paul Cody, proved the saying that quality is better than quantity.

Preparation began with hall booking at the Perton Civic Centre after several efforts to book a hall in a village initially planned for the forum. Following the booking, a team headed by Dr Hakeem Bakare (Zaeem Majlis) began preparation for the event. Invitations for the forum and WW3 leaflets were distributed to over 250 residents in the village by visiting the village two times before the event. Efforts were also made to visit churches in the area. Six churches around the village were invited through virtual invitation. The 15 Perton Parish Councillors were also invited.

They set up the hall with a beautiful backdrop banner and other exhibition materials provided by the centre. The exhibition displayed messages of peace by Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (aba), verses from the Holy Quran with English translation, leaflets, and books on pathways to peace, and popup banners themed quotes by Promised Messiah (as), and Charity Walk for Peace.

The forum started at 5:00 pm, chaired by Dr Azher Siddiq sahib (Nazim Tabligh West Midlands region), with the recitation of the Holy Quran by Mr Nasir Ahmad Kiani with English translation.

The welcome address was delivered by Dr Azher, followed by a brief introduction to Ahmadiyya Muslim Association and Ahmadiyya Muslim Elders Association and their efforts towards establishing peace with Dr Hakeem Bakare.

Revd Julie Cody, the Vicar at the Church at Perton, addressed the audience by thanking the community for organising such a long overdue event. She then apologised for not making a long speech due to the short notice of the invitation.

She added that she looks forwards to working with the community to promote peaceful coexistence.

Revd Paul Cody said the recitation reminded him of his experience in Palestine and showed that we could live together peacefully. Concerning the low turnout, Revd Paul quoted Desmond Tutu, "If you think small things do not make a difference, you have not spent a night in a small tent with a mosquito". He concluded by saying that though we may be small, we are here for a good thing, and that thing is the spreading of peace.

Imam Imran Ahmad Khalid delivered the keynote speech, the Missionary for Baitul Ghafoor Mosque, Halesowen and Baitul Atta Mosque, Wolverhampton. In his speech, Imam Imran explained the need to foster peace in society regarding chapter 49:10 of the Holy Quran and the teachings of Prophet Mohammad (PBUH).

"And if two parties of believers fight against each other, make peace between them; then if after that one of them transgresses against the other, fight the party that transgresses until it returns to the command of Allah. Then if it returns, make peace between them with equity, and act justly. Verily, Allah loves the just. (Ch. 49: v.10)."

He said that global peace could be achieved if the world could adhere to this Islamic principle. According to him, justice is an important requirement for world peace. There is a need for the world to unite and fight against a transgressing party until the party desist and is ready to make peace. Once peace is established, efforts should be made not to seek revenge or impose restrictions.

After that, a questions and answers session allowed attendees to ask questions on different topics.

The event ended with a silent prayer.

In the end, refreshments were served to all the attendees

The guests appreciated the event and looked forward to attending future events.

تبلیغ کا اصول

ایک جرنیل جب لڑائی کے لئے جاتا ہے تو اگر وہ ہوشیار جرنیل ہوتا ہے تو وہ اس طرح حرکت کرتا ہے کہ دشمن کی فوج اُس کے پیچھے پیچھے چلتی ہے۔ اور اچھے جرنیل کی علامت یہ ہوتی ہے کہ دشمن کی فوج اُس کے پیچھے پیچھے چلے۔ تبلیغ کا بھی یہی اصول ہے کہ جہاں ہم تبلیغ کریں دشمن وہاں جائے۔ یہ نہیں کہ جہاں دشمن گند پھیلانے وہاں ہم جائیں۔

اللہ تعالیٰ کے فضل کے ساتھ احمدیت ایک ایسے دور میں داخل ہو رہی ہے جبکہ ہر احمدی خواہ وہ بڑا ہو یا چھوٹا بالآخر انشاء اللہ داعی اللہ بن جائے گا اور وہ دور پیچھے رہ جائے گا جب احمدی یہ سمجھا کرتے تھے کہ تبلیغ کرنا مبلغ یا مربی کا کام ہے
